REASON STAFF MEMBER IS NOMINATED

Lisa Jones has taken on a new role this year at Mark Twain Elementary as the media paraprofessional. In doing so Lisa has generated a new excitement for reading and created a warm and energized atmosphere in our library. Lisa’s stimulating bulletin boards attract interest in books and coming to the library. Lisa has started a number of new things with the students this year such as the student recommendation box and a highlighted area of PBIS books to match the schools theme each month.

Lisa has exciting displays of books and as she instructs she also has the students take part in a number of hands on activities. She is eager to support the staff and locate items for them as well as tap into lessons they are already covering in the classroom to extend student learning. Lisa gave of her own time this summer as she prepared for the school year by spending countless days and hours at school.

Lisa hosted a book fair this fall and generated close to $3,000 in new books and materials for our library. Her enthusiasm carried over as she dressed up to represent a new book each day during book fair week. Lisa has been busy bringing our current media resources up to date and continues to have big plans for our media center.

She is fostering a love for learning in all our students and we are lucky to have her at Mark Twain Elementary! Lisa has already made a difference in students’ lives and will continue to do so for those to come. She goes above and beyond on a daily basis for our students and staff. She is deserving of being recognized with the Make a Difference Award.
